The Solemnity of the Epiphany

The Revelation of God's Love through Jesus shown to the Wise Men and to the World. Like them we are asked to prostrate and present our Gifts to God. This takes an act of Humility. Humility is a gift that needs to be prayed for every day, a gift which helps us to counter selfishness and pride in our lives.

Paul Morgan and Archie Muir

Today, on this Feast of the Epiphany, there will be a simple children's Liturgy in the Hall from 1pm to 3 pm, hosted by the Neo- Catechumate. The 3 Kings will be present. There will be a gospel reading, some songs and the children will meet the 3 Kings. There will be some small party bags given out and juice and biscuits. Children of the Parish are welcome.

Thank you

A thanks for kindnesses shown to your clergy in the form of Cards, Gifts, Greetings. It is very kind of you to remember us.

Please pray for Vocations to Priestly and Religious Life. It is certainly a viable option in this world.

Thank you to all who have prepared the Churches, Liturgies, and participated over the Christmas Season so far, which extends to next Sunday, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Your efforts are very much appreciated.

New Year Resolutions

A time for asking myself can I do a little more for my Parish. We have one new Reader. We are in need of some new Readers for the 10.30am in St Thomas. Could you volunteer, the more the merrier. Training available. See Fr. McGinley.

If you are on the Rota for Reading please make every effort to be there.
Thank you.

Also, please say YES to bringing the Offertory Gifts when asked by the passkeepers. It is a great honour to bring gifts on behalf of everyone.

Parish Pastoral Councils

We will need new members come the end of February. Could you be of service to help or can you think of parishioners, who would like to serve on these? Please have a think and, of course, pray.
